Professional Experience

Robert is a founding partner of Hudson Cook and currently serves as partner emeritus. His practice included assisting national and state banks, savings associations, credit unions, mortgage bankers and other licensed lenders in the development and maintenance of nationwide consumer finance programs; advice regarding alternative business financing products; and due diligence related to the purchase and sale of consumer and small business operations and loan portfolios. Robert has been involved in several professional associations including the Federal Reserve Board Consumer Advisory Council, the Subcommittee on Truth in Lending of the American Bar Association Business Law Section, and the Business Law Section of the Maryland State Bar Association. He is a founding member and past president of the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers and in 2019, he received its Senator William Proxmire Lifetime Achievement Award.
